NASO

FROM THE HILL

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN OF THE FOREST HILL JEWISH CENTRE

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI ELIE

With 176 verses, Naso is the longest single Parshah in the Torah. For some Shul goers, the thought of Naso is very challenging. "OMG," people might inwardly think to themselves, "the Service will take an extra 15 minutes! I hope Rabbi Elie finds suitable Chazanim who will quicken their pace so we can compensate for the long service. We always end the service at 11:45 AM on Shabbos! Will that be the case here??"

I'm here to tell you that Naso is a test, a test to see if Shavuoth had an impact. We should be thinking "the more verses the better!"

In the same light, I am always inspired by the people who delay Havdalah as much as possible in order to extend Shabbos. I see them as true believers in what Shabbos is all about.

Let's look forward to the long reading because life is about enjoying the spiritual moments and not just trying to finish them.

Shabbat Shalom,
Rabbi Elie
